

---

Celebrate Heritage!

Elegba Folklore Society

FROM THE YORUBA COSMOLOGY OF WEST AFRICA,
ELEGBA IS THE ORISA OR DIVINITY WHO OPENS THE ROADS & BRINGS CLARITY OUT OF CONFUSION.
WE HOPE OUR PROGRAMS & SERVICES ARE, INDEED,
ROAD-OPENING EXPERIENCES.

---

African Dance & Music, 5/14 • 7p

Concert

Henrico Theatre

328.4491

African Dance & Music, 6/5 • 1p

King-Lincoln Music Festival

King-Lincoln Park, Newport News

757.926.1470

African Dance & Music, 6/12 • 8p

Minds Wide Open Concert

Dogwood Dell Opening Weekend

644.3900

JUNTEENTH, A FREEDOM CELEBRATION

6/19 • 3p

Angola/Virginia

Manchester Dock & Slave Trail

644.3900

African Dance & Music, 7/4 • TBD

Concert

Meadow Farm Park

501.5131

Richmond's Cultural Ambassador

Embrace the Spirit!

101 E Broad St • RVA

804.644.3900

story1@efsinc.org

---

Help for Haiti

Haitian Art Exhibit

Collect beautifully vibrant paintings by various Haitian artists, and the proceeds of your purchase will go to the relief effort!

Enjoy these images of reverent and resilient people depicting their love for their land. Carvings are also available.

---

The Julian Greene Collection

Julian Greene

Greene's acrylic paintings are expressions that give a broad sense of awareness and understanding of the complexities of urban energy. "It is my intention to capture the true essence of the African American experience -- from the harsh realities of slavery and its oppressive legacy to, yet, daily achievements and hope." Through May 31. Gallery tours are available for groups.

---

African Dance & Cultural Traditions

Weekly Saturday Classes, 11am

Enjoy a mind-body-spirit experience in movement and music.

Open to all, ages 6 - 86! Performing company is holding open auditions.

---

In the Beginning... Virginia

Tour Along the Trail of Enslaved Africans

Journey into Richmond's history to visit the sites where few monuments exist. These are the sites that tell the story that lives between the pages of history books. -Immerse yourself in past occurrences that impact our perspectives today. Group tour by reservation.